For the kind attention of Ardent Devotees!

Sri Lakshminrusimha Swamy graciously appeared in Srikrupa Swamy's dream in 2002 and bestowed a divine command to construct a beautiful temple in his honor. With the benevolent blessings and guidance received from him, an extraordinary temple was constructed for Sri Viswaroopa Lakshminrusimha Swamy in Kattvakkam, also known as Simmapuram. Words cannot capture the divine beauty of this magnificent 16-foot-tall deity.

The Sacred Installation of Sri Viswaroopa Lakshmi Nrusimha Swamy Moola Vighram at Simmapuram was done on an auspicious Chitra Pournami day in Swati Nakshathra on 02/05/2007. Many Bagavathas sincerely participated in the Temple construction Kainkaryam with utmost devotion and as a result, on Kara Varusham (09/05/2011) With Acharyan and Azhagiyasimman's blessings, the Ashta Bandhana Maha Samprokshanam was done successfully.

Subsequently Separate Sannidhis were built for Sri Garudar, Sri Anjaneyar, SriLakshmi Hayagrivar, Sri Boovaraha, and Sri Dhanvanthri Perumal. With the Lord's continued blessings, from day one, Daily Aradhana, accompanied by special poojas such as Sudarsana Homas, Tirumanjanams, Santhana Kappu, Annakootohsavam, Eka Dina Laksharchana, Kalyana Utsavam, Garuda Sevai, akanda Vishnu Sahasra Nama Parayanam, and bhajans, are conducted on specific occasions as directed and ordained by the divine will.

The Lord is majestically sitting on AAthara Peetam, Koorma Peetam, Padma Peetam, Anantha Peetam and Yoga Peetam. As per the sloka, the Lord displays an extremely pleased and a broadly smiling face ('athiprasanna vadhanam') with a very condescendingly kind mood for responding to all our prayers, is seated in the Yogic posture with His consort 'Lakshmi' seated on His left lap who is embracing the Lord with Her right hand and holding a lotus flower on Her left hand. The Lord wields the 'Sudarsana Chakra' on His back right hand and the bow and arrow on His back left hand (as the fore-running indication of the fame He intends to acquire wielding these 'Kodanda' in the subsequent 'Yuga' in the Rama Avatara) while his both the forehands are in the usual 'Abhaya Hastha' and 'Varada Hastha' postures. Nrusimha also known as 'Athirudra', in this holy Form has three eyes, the third one on His forehead.

The twelve Vajra Dhamsstras (teeth) on the Lord's face represent the 27 stars in the 12 zodiacs. The Nava Grahas have become one with the Lord on his radiant face. The moon (Chandra) representing his left eye, the Sun (Surya) on his right eye and the Mars on his third eye. Venus (Sukran) on his nose, Jupiter (Guru) on his upper lips, Mercury (Buthan) on his lower lips, Kethu on his right ear and Rahu on his left ear and Saturn (Sani Bagavan) on his tongue makes this Simhapura Sthalam a very special parihara sthalam. Countless devotees who wholeheartedly worship the most merciful Lord with unwavering faith are bestowed with abundant blessings, as their desires and wishes for blissful marriages, children, buying and owning land, homes, and excellent health are granted by the divine.

With the grace of our Baktha Paradheenan who is bound by the bakthi of his devotees, we are planning to expand, renovate and rebuild the SVLN temple before the Jeernodharana Samprokshanam.
